BUSINESS VOICES

PHARMACEUTICAL SECTOR
The need of the hour is to ensure that we have the right people in the right places and allow institutions to run independently

Kasturi Chellaraja Wilson

APPAREL INDUSTRY

The apparel industry must maintain its hard-earned reputation at all costs with long-term economic and political stability being the key

Yohan Lawrence

INSURANCE SECTOR

Sri Lanka is a resilient nation by nature – political and economic stability must be reached through the current restructuring of economic reforms

Ravi Liyanage

EXPORT SECTOR

Many businesses are moving their manufacturing out of China and Sri Lanka has the potential to capture this market

Rajitha Kariyawasana

REAL ESTATE SECTOR

With costs increasing constantly, pricing new projects is not practical and construction is challenging

Shehana Brahmanage

ECONOMIC OUTLOOK

Due to the slowdown, per capita income in developing economies is expected to fall this year and be nearly five percent below the pre-pandemic trend

Shiran Fernando

OPINION SHAPERS

SRI LANKANS OVERSEAS

The brain drain is a phenomenon that all countries experience to varying degrees due to the impact of globalisation

Priyantha Sriwardene

ECONOMIC MELTDOWN

The pandemic, supply chain disruptions and the Russia-Ukraine war have led to a dark turn in animal spirits

Samantha Amerasinghe

THE ECONOMY

Society will support the government as long as it is seen as credible in its actions, reasonable and acting with societal rather than vested interests in mind

Dr. Nishan de Mel

GOOD GOVERNANCE

Now there is a trend in the current climate – political leaders are blaming the people for electing them to the positions in which they have done a bad job!

Chandula Abeywickrema

FISCAL POLICY

There should be a multi rate system because an unequal society should have a form of tax that addresses this inequality

N. R. Gajendran

STATE OF THE STATE

We are in a very logistically attractive location in the Indian Ocean. We have two superpowers as our neighbours – India and China
